

A Connecticut History

A large red wooden barn with a stone wall in the foreground and a grassy field. The barn has a gambrel roof and several windows. A stone wall runs across the middle ground, separating the barn from the foreground. The sky is a pale blue.

Concurrent Exhibitions:

Hudson Valley Art Association 93rd Annual National Juried Exhibition, and My Town, the Young Artists Exhibition

June 5 - July 17

Opening Reception:

Saturday, June 13 from 5 - 7 pm

LYME ART ASSOCIATION

Where Art Lives!

90 Lyme Street, Old Lyme, CT 06371

A Connecticut History

June 5 - July 17

Opening Reception:

Saturday, June 13 from 5 – 7 pm

Concurrent Exhibitions: Hudson Valley Art Association 93rd Annual National Juried Exhibition, and My Town, the Young Artists Exhibition

www.lymeartassociation.org

Gallery Hours: Tuesday - Sunday, 10 am - 5 pm

Art on front: Scott Rhoades, Nathan Hale Homestead II, acrylic;

Art on this side: Richard Stephen, Last Movie, Milford Capitol, oil

Non-Profit
U.S. Postage
PAID
Permit #155
Deep River, CT
